COOLIDGE TO CALL WORLD ARMS PARLEY!

GEM BROKER WARNED HE IS MARKED AS DEATH VICTIM

Harry I. Katz Threatened For Days Before He Is Shot Down

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—Linking Los Angeles' latest murder mystery, the slaying of Harry I. Katz, master musician, diamond broker and alleged lover of many women, with another of the city's unsolved killings, police today summoned for questioning in connection with Katz' slaying, Albert A. Mors.

Mors is the divorced husband of Teresa Mors, antique dealer, for whose murder Normal Selby, screen actor and former pugilist, known as "Kid McCoy," is held in the Los Angeles county jail.

Captain of Detectives George Chapman ordered that Mors be brought before him to tell of a "deal between Mrs. Mors and Katz." This deal, involving, it was said, $250,000 worth of rare jewels, was never completed because of Mors' objections.

Seek Clew in Box

While Mors was being questioned, police planned to open Katz' safety deposit box in a Los Angeles bank, where they believe new clews leading to solving the mysterious killing will be uncovered.

At the same time Frank Collins, said by detectives to have a police record here and in San Diego, was to be further quizzed in connection with the Katz investigation. Collins was arrested after code notes, which he had not explained, were found in his pockets. The notes, police believe, relate to diamond deals.

Threatened With Death

Katz, wealthy Los Angeles broker and society favorite, owner of yachts, apartment houses and rare collections of violins, jewels and paintings, who was shot down Monday at the door of his luxurious apartment, had been threatened for days before his death, police were informed today.

Miss Dorothy Carroll, a beautiful blonde, the slain broker's sweetheart, told detectives Katz feared for his life, which had been threatened several times. She also declared since his death she had received telephone calls, warning her not to talk.

"Don't crack a word of this—if you do, I will come up and kill you."

That was one message given Miss Carroll by a "killer" over the telephone shortly after her sweetheart was murdered, she informed detectives.

Tells of 'Zero Hour'

The man who made this threat is Katz' murderer or a gunman in the employ of a broker with whom the musician had dealt, police said.

Miss Carroll said Katz visited her Sunday evening and told her his "zero hour" had come.

"He said he had been told he had only a certain time to live. He was very nervous," said Miss Carroll. Within twenty-four hours the broker was dead, shot through the mouth, after answering a knock at his apartment door.

The Katz crime, called the "murder of the twenty-two violins," because of the finding of a collection of rare violins in the musician-broker's apartment, was linked today with the murder of Mrs. Theresa Mors, for which Norman Selby, known professionally as "Kid McCoy," is held here in jail.

Search for Women

Betty Lambert and another woman known as "Peggy," both residing at the Nottingham apartments, where Mrs. Mors was killed, were sought by the police for questioning. They were friends of the slain broker.

At the same time McCoy told detectives Katz had had several deals with Mrs. Mors relative to the purchase of objects in the "art." Once, McCoy said, he and Mrs. Mors visited Katz in his apartment, and there the broker displayed many precious stones. Katz wanted to trade diamonds for some of Mrs. Mors' art pieces, the former pugilist said.

Ten Dead, Others May Die as Result Of 'Cider Party'

BEDFORD, Va., Nov. 12. The death toll from Monday's "cider party" at the Elks' National home here mounted to ten today when James K. Collins of New York succumbed to the arsenic tainted cider.

To the list of those suffering from the effects of the poison was added the name of Daniel Crowley of Somerville, Mass., who is seriously ill.

Physicians who are in attendance at the home said this afternoon that none of the men who drank the poisoned cider are definitely out of danger.

CONFIDENCE OF PEOPLE WITH CAL

President Receives Caller After Caller, Displaying Real Eagerness

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—There is no thrill doubtless like the thrill of a vote of confidence given by the American people to a servant in public office—and as Calvin Coolidge sat at his desk today and received caller after caller his eyes seem to show plainly the light of an eagerness to fulfill what so many voters expect of him.

The president was full of smiles, happiness was written in every sentence he uttered, he appeared somehow to be relieved of a great strain. Perhaps he has not been conscious of that strain. But it was a combination of shyness and caution and great modesty. Placed in office by the hand of providence, he felt a responsibility to follow in the footsteps of another. Appointments were to a large extent guided by commitments made by his predecessor. Inauguration may be four months away, but to all intents and purposes the second term of President Coolidge began this week. The ceremony on March 4 will be of only technical and historical importance. For President Coolidge is turning toward his tasks with a feeling that henceforth he must fulfill the pledges of his campaign.

Economy Pledge

Greatest among these pledges was a promise to practice economy. Foremost among the impressions of Calvin Coolidge among the voters generally was one that emphasized his thrift, his lifetime habit of careful expenditure. It has remained with him in the White House. It was the basis of his many vetoes in the last session of congress.

He had been advised that more votes are obtained by satisfying the demands of members of congress for compensation to their constituents in one form or another whether it were an increase in pay to the postal service or veterans' pensions, but Mr. Coolidge chose to believe the wiser policy in the long run was to veto

Mrs. Harding Remains Unchanged In Sickness

MARION, Ohio, Nov. 12.—No change in the condition of Mrs. Warren G. Harding, widow of the late president, was announced at White Oaks farm this morning. Late last night she was somewhat better after having been able to take more nourishment than usual throughout the day.

Many prayers are offered here for the ultimate recovery of Mrs. Harding. Last night, following Judge Grant E. Mouser's address to the American Legion here, ten seconds of silent prayer was observed by the large audience at the suggestion of Gilbert Paschall, commander of Bird-McGinnis post, American legion.

DRY RAIDERS ARREST RICH LAWYER IN RUM WAR

Prominent Member of Bar In Canada Is Accused; Seek Millionaire

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—F. R. Anderson, wealthy Vancouver, British Columbia attorney, was arrested early today by a deputy United States marshal, on a charge of violating the prohibition laws. He was released under $5000 bail after having been booked at the county jail.

The arrest of Anderson was said by federal officials to herald the start of a government drive against the Pacific coast rum running ring that controlled the Quadra and other ships in the liquor trade between the Dominion port and the California coast.

Called 'Outrage'

Arrest of Attorney Anderson was characterized as "outrageous" by John L. McNabb, former United States district attorney, and leading member of the San Francisco bar, who announced he had tendered his services to Mr. Anderson in connection with the affair.

"Mr. Anderson is one of the most distinguished members of the Canadian bar. His presence here is in connection with the interests of his clients who have retained him."

Seek Millionaire

It was learned that secret warrants were out for two other men. One of them, federal officials admitted this afternoon, is for Russell Whitelaw, Vancouver, British Columbia, millionaire.

Anderson declared that Whitelaw was a personal friend of his, and in no way connected with the case of the Quadra.

The name of the third man was not revealed.

Battle for Drier Law

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Renewed efforts by drys in the coming session of congress to make the Volstead act apply to home brew were foreseen here today as a result of the Soper opinion in the trial of Representative Hill that it did not so apply.

Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league, in a laconic statement, said the Soper opinion was "clearly right" and that it might be necessary to "cork up the law a bit."

Wets, on the other hand, were jubilant. They were of the opinion any attempt to make the one-half of 1 per cent definition of intoxicating alcoholic content apply to cider and fruit juices manufactured in the home or on the farm would alienate a large portion of the rural vote which has always been strongly dry.

Amundsen's Arctic Ship Safe and Free From Ice

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 12.—Lieutenant Amundsen's Arctic ship, The Maid, is free from the ice and safe four miles north of Spitzbergen, according to radio messages from Amundsen received today via Spitzbergen. The Maud escaped from the ice August 7, with no further damage than a slight leak. Amundsen reported all well with his crew. The explorer has given up his plan to drift across the Arctic circle in The Maud, according to Central News dispatches.

Coolidge Names Kin of Roosevelt to Navy Job

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The appointment of Theodore Douglas Robinson, nephew of the late President Roosevelt, as assistant secretary of the navy, was announced by the White House. In a formal statement announcing the appointment, President Coolidge revealed that the last request of the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge was that Robinson be appointed as assistant secretary of the navy.

ADVANCE OF PRICES ON EXCHANGE HALTED

Number of Active Issues Suffer Losses, Others Make Good Gains

By W. S. COUSINS
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Reactionary tendencies developed in the stock market today and the forward price movements in many stocks was halted more abruptly than at any time since the election.

Losses of from 1 to 3 points were made by a number of active issues which led the advance on Monday and Tuesday, including American Can, Southern Pacific, Baldwin and U. S. Steel.

While these movements were in progress, however, other market leaders were ready to take up the rally. Cast Iron Pipe moved up to another new high at 131½, an advance of five points. Sears-Roebuck led the mercantile stocks in another broad movement in which it recorded a new high at 129, or 3 points higher than its best previous record for 1924. Pullman climbed to 136½ and General Electric gained 5 at 256.

Rail Stocks Held

The railroad stocks had a good record for the day. Not only did stocks in this group sell at higher prices but most of them were able to retain their gains and to attract new buying at the higher price levels.

Frisco common at 51, set a good pace, and Great Northern preferred at 67½; Northern Pacific at 68½; Reading at 66¼ showed gains in the maximum of 1½; Missouri Pacific and Katy common and preferred also continued in good form.

Money market conditions were favorable to renewed activities in the stock market and big commission houses in Wall Street reported heavy influx of buying orders from outside points. Industrial conditions also continued favorable, the Iron Age reporting "that the movement in pig iron which was well under way before election has broadened, also that there is lively interest in requirements for the first quarter of 1925." Steel stocks were not inclined to reflect these conditions today.

Wayne McCollum, 23, Fullerton, Cal., civil engineer, who died from wounds received while duck hunting with a party of friends.

With Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, of Sacramento; E. R. Werdin, former Los Angeles city official; W. S. Record, city engineer of Fullerton, and Paul Pratt, Fullerton civil engineer, McCollum was in the duck blinds on the Katteberg ranch when shot. A flock of geese headed over the blinds and all guns were fired, McCollum falling mortally wounded. One side of his face was torn away.

Last Solemn Tribute Paid to Senator Lodge

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 12.—City, state and nation united today in paying a last solemn tribute to Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. Because of his family's wishes, there was nothing of the pomp and ceremony that might have attended the funeral. The simple ceremonies were held in the old wooden Christ church. Bishop William Lawrence officiated. The notable gathering in the unimposing structure included men whose names are known all over the globe.

SUES LEOPOLD, LOEB

Osborne Wood Is Hard Hit In Stock Market, Is Claim

MANILA, Nov. 12.—Reports circulated here today that Osborne Wood, son of Governor Leonard Wood, has lost most, if not all, of the huge winnings he was credited with having made in the stock market a few months ago.

According to the reports current here Wood suffered reverses in Shanghai stock deals and also lost considerable sums through a practice of making bets on special trains on which he traveled.

Several months ago Wood was declared to have made a sizable fortune through stock market dealings conducted by cable.

SERVICES OF INAUGURAL PERPLEX

Official Washington Wants 'Em Simple, Merchants Favoring Splurge

By ROBERT T. SMALL
Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Washington is in for another "simple" inauguration. It was explained at the White House today that, while President Coolidge has had no opportunity to give any particular thought to the matter, his well-known views of simplicity and lack of ostentation in public as well as private life will guide his plans for his formal induction into a second term.

The president will ride to the capitol publicly to take the oath of office, which will be administered to a president for the first time by a former president. William Howard Taft, twenty-seventh president of the United States, in his present capacity as chief justice of the supreme court, will solemnly commit to Calvin Coolidge the upholding and defending the constitution against all enemies from without and within.

Warren G. Harding set the style four years ago of calling off all spectacular performances in connection with his inauguration. It had been planned that there should be a grand celebration. The Republicans had been out of power in the United States for eight long years, and all the marching clubs and bands and patrols from the country over were all ready and more to strut their stuff down historic Pennsylvania avenue. The folks from the old home town of Marion, Ohio, were to be here in full force, and it was even planned that Dr. George T. Harding, the president's father should ride in his "one-horse shay" in the inaugural procession, typifying the ever-faithful country family physician.

Hotel Rates Dispute

Then came the historic dispute over hotel rates. It appeared that some of the home town folks were being charged prices which they considered outrageous. The mat-

PRESIDENT OF BELIEF INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE WILL FURTHER CAUSE OF PEACE AMONG DIFFERENT COUNTRIES

British Government Is Said To Be In Favor Of Gathering, Which Would Be Similar To That Under Harding Administration; Meeting Place Is Now Subject Of Discussion, Claim

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—President Coolidge is only waiting a favorable opportunity to take the initiative in calling another world arms conference—if, indeed, "feelers" in that direction have not already been put out by this government, it was ascertained today in administration quarters. The primary purpose of such a conference would be to accomplish what the Washington conference left undone, to-wit:

To limit the production of aircraft for war purposes, limit the size and number of submarines, limit the size and equipment of land forces, and codify international law.

CALVIN COOLIDGE, president of the United States, seated at his desk in the White house. The president is waiting a favorable opportunity to take the lead in calling another world arms conference, today's dispatches declare.

The president is committed to the belief that the cause of world peace can best, and perhaps only, be furthered by the holding of another conference similar in intent and accomplishment to that held in Washington under Harding.

Dispatches from London, indicating that the British government believes the time is ripe, were viewed in Washington today as extremely significant. While officials generally declined to comment publicly on these dispatches, they did point out with some significance the last word on this subject spoken by President Coolidge in a public address as follows: "When the reparations plan (the Dawes plan) is in operation, I shall deem it an appropriate time to approach the great powers with a proposal for another conference for a further limitatio nof armaments and for devising plans for a codification of international law.

"I personally favor entering covenants for the purpose of outlawing aggressive war by any practical means."

The reparations is now in operation and has been for many weeks.

Governments Stable

And, what is more important, the British and American governments upon which must fall the major work in promoting another world parley, are now assuredly stable for some years ahead. President Coolidge has just been elected for a four-year term. In England, Premier Stanley Baldwin and his Tory government are in the saddle for at least five years. No governmental overturns in either country stand in the way of such a parley.

Another barrier to the calling of a conference has been the continued French occupation of the Ruhr. The French are now out of the Ruhr, and the thousands of French soldiers necessary to that undertaking are now resting on their arms with nothing to do.

Objections by France

The French have always been the stumblingblock in the pathway of a new conference. On at least three occasions since the

ENGLAND WAITS INVITATION TO WORLD ARMS PARLEY

Tory Government Would Welcome Move By President Coolidge To Escape Proposed Geneva Protocol, Say Politicians

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—England was eagerly waiting today for an American invitation to another disarmament conference. There is little doubt that such a move by President Coolidge would be welcomed by the Tory government as a ready escape from the proposed protocol.

Political circles were inclined to interpret the speech of Sir Auckland Geddes yesterday as Great Britain's surrender to the United States of leadership in world humanitarian movements. It is apparent that Premier Stanley Baldwin is desirous of the closest co-operation with the United States.

Predicts Peace Danger

The Tories, on whose heavy victory Baldwin was swept back into the premiership, are inclined to oppose the Geneva pact. The Daily Telegraph publishes today an article by Lieutenant-Colonel Reppington, who has just returned from a tour of Europe, stating his belief that the Geneva agreement is premature, that it would cause dissension and constitute a "real danger to peace."

W. B. Pringle, defeated as Liberal candidate for parliament, declared there was greatest need for another disarmament conference and added:

"The Washington conference stopped competition in dreadnaughts because of their doubtful efficacy. Now there's competition in light cruisers."

The admiralty denies that competition has sprung up in construction of this class of fighting craft.

'CLUB HUSBANDS' ATTEND MEETING

Four One-Act Plays Given As Part of Program at Bi-Monthly Session

Convincing evidence that Tuesday Afternoon club members made wise decision in returning to the bi-monthly meetings this year, may be found in the large audiences that have been seen at the regular club meetings and programs this year.

At the meeting yesterday afternoon the auditorium held few vacant seats. There were several "club husbands," who had leisure time because of the Armistice day observance. Mrs. Montgomery had issued a special invitation to them to attend, and she greeted them, expressng pleasure that so many were present.

Program Fund

During the meeting Mrs. Homer D. Lockwood, chairman of ways and means, announced that $136 was realized from the recital given by Marcella Webb under the auspices of the music department. In conclusion, Mrs. Lockwood presented the treasurer with a check for $600.

Speakers introduced by Mrs. Montgomery were Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., chairman of endowment; Miss Annie L. McIntyre, assistant superintendent of city schools, who told of National Education week; W. E. Hewitt and Mrs. Daniel Campbell, both of whom are prominent in the Com-Cunity theatre of Hollywood, dissented the chest cause to the club.

Present Players

Completing the day at the clubhouse was a program of talented dramatic work from the Communit Theatre of Hollywood, directed by Neely Dickson. Four one-act plays were presented, each splendidly staged, with talented artists portraying the characters. It was one of the finest and most enjoyable programs the club has enjoyed in many months. Adding greatly to the dramatic feature was music furnished by the quartet from the Glendale Symphony orchestra: W. J. Stoll, violin; W. V. Anderson, flute; J. Arthur Myers, 'cello, and Mrs. Gertrude C. Erb, pianist.

Furnishings for the plays were loaned by the Dobinson Players and D. L. Gregg hardware store.

Club Grandmothers to Take Part In Bazaar

Tuesday Afternoon club grandmothers are going to make their debut as an active unit in club life at the annual bazaar, Monday and Tuesday, November 17 and 18, when they are to have a baby booth. It was the idea of Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, club president, and also a grandmother, to bring the grandmothers together. Following the club meeting yesterday a meeting was held in the tea room and plans made for their part in the bazaar. Mrs. E. W. Kinney was chosen chairman of the baby booth and asks that any one having donations of clothing for children up to six years of age, call her at Glendale 347. Mrs. Lillian Dow, Glendale 2475-J is assisting her.

THREE SPEAKERS AT CLUB BANQUET

Local Student, Pianist and Welfare Worker Address Tuesday Luncheon

Dominating interests in club activity were represented by the three speakers presented yesterday at the luncheon of the Tuesday Afternoon club. Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, club president, presided over the gathering of 180 club members and guests.

Recognition was given Armistice day by the singing of "America" by the company; the singing of "The Song of Liberty" by Mrs. A. M. Draper, who sang the same song November 11, 1918 in Windsor, Ontario, Canada; and by the arrangements of red, white and blue flowers on the luncheon tables.

National Education week, November 16 to 22 was brought to the attention of the club gathering by Betty Sinclair, Glendale school girl, a most eloquent and forceful speaker for one of her age. With perfect poise and in a voice plainly audible in every part of the large hall, she praised Glendale schools and made a plea to all school patrons to visit Glendale schools next week.

Other Speakers

Other two speakers at the luncheon were Wesley Kuhnle, Glendale pianist, and Mrs. E. D. Yard, founder and president of the Glendale welfare council. Mr. Kuhnle, who was introduced by Mrs. Roberta T. Young, curator of the music department of the club, spoke on "Great Music." He declared that "All of life exists in music." In conclusion he named the great musicians of the world.

Mrs. Yard was presented by Mrs. Frank C. Ayars, chairman of local relief for the club. The work of the welfare council is well known to Glendale residents. In telling of her work Mrs. Yard asked that all needy cases be reported to her or her assistants in order that duplication of service might be eliminated and proper care be given.

A committee of examiners will be named and plans made for camping trips.

COMMENT by GIL A. COWAN

Money is plentiful for building, according to rumors current in Glendale today. One firm loaned $100,000 the first of the week, the writer is reliably informed.

That means employment is going to be steady this winter in the trades. Employment means prosperity for the stores, as well as the sales of more homes to workmen.

And as the money keeps turning there will be vacant real estate in demand by builders.

However, the hour of speculation has not yet been reached, according to this man who is loaning money. He says it will come after the first of the year.

That's a tip for you folks who have money to invest. First aid the builder. Then when conditions are "ripe" take a turn at the "wheel of fortune."

"Isms," like spasms, soon pass. Fascism in Italy is going to disappear. Communism also is on the wane. Socialism is so dead that you seldom hear it preached. Like an epidemic, they must run their course. And they actually accomplish some good.

Many socialistic theories have become law in this land of ours. Communism is the bridge over which Russia is en transit; likewise, the fascist movement in Italy held that government together in the face of anarchy.

Americans should not be too harsh in criticism of the "isms." At the same time no such spasms are desirable. A little dash of cold water does good in preventing political tantrums.

The overwhelming election of Calvin Coolidge was the answer to La Follette and Wheeler.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower, in opening a clinic for research here, under the auspices of the Harrower Foundation, will do much to give this "fastest growing city" much publicity.

A community cannot help but swell with pride over the accomplishments which this talented scientist has brought to himself in the study of endocrinology. Few know of the good deeds he has done in repayment for his measure of success, but the clinic is a reflection of his public-spirited benefactions to all humanity.

Club Women Prepare For Party on Friday

Reservations are increasing for the benefit card affair Friday afternoon and night at the W. W. Worley home on North Grand View avenue for the Women's Athletic club. Mrs. Helen Ward, chairman of tickets, announces that she will receive reservations up until Thursday night. Card clubs can make reservations for the club and can pivot or progress, as desired.

Prizes will be given and clubs can furnish additional prizes, if desired. Refreshments will be served. Those who are lending tables are asked to have them at the Valley Supply Co., North Maryland and East Wilson avenues, by 9 o'clock Friday morning. All articles loaned are to be marked with names. Anyone desiring transportation should call Mrs. Michel, Glendale 2377.

Grocery Store Opened By Woman on Broadway

Mrs. Mildred Lange has opened a grocery at 1308 East Broadway and is prepared to serve the residents of her community with food staples. Mrs. Lange formerly came from San Francisco yet she is confident that opportunities in the southland city of Glendale are far greater than in the cities of the north. As an incentive to become better acquainted with her place of business she is offering a prize of a huge box of candy to the one who will propose a catchy name for her store.

Australian Composer To Appear at Church

Robert Harkness, Australian composer-pianist, assisted by Thomas Govan, Scottish baritone, will present a recital of sacred music Thursday night at the Glendale Presbyterian church. The program will begin at 7:30 o'clock. A silver offering will be taken. Mr. Harkness is the composer of over 1000 gospel songs and hymns. One of the features of his program will be the instantaneous composition of six impromptu melodies on any hymn suggested by the audience.

Flag Carried During Harrison Campaign In Armistice Parade

Mrs. Hattie Tiffany of 129 West Los Feliz road, carried a silk flag in the Armistice day parade yesterday which has been in use in her family since 1840.

The flag was carried by her husband, William Tiffany in a campaign parade when Benjamin Harrison was running for president of the U. S. in 1840. The parade was held in Chicago.

Mrs. Tiffany is press correspondent for Mary Jane Gillette tent, Daughters of Veterans and she was in the Daughters of Veterans unit of the parade.

MERCHANT IS WARNED BY RED GANG

No. Jackson Street Clothier Finds Threat on Card Under Home Door

A threatening "red hand" letter —something new in the annals of local crime—has been received by Mr. and Mrs. C. Korn of 408½ North Jackson street, proprietors of a women's clothing store at 223 North Brand. Returning home at 11 o'clock last night, they found a card under their door with a piece of isinglass attached to it, on which was drawn with red crayon a skull and crossbones. The same red crayon was used to write the following message on the card:

"You have ruined our trade, so BEWARE.

"THE RED GANG."

The card was one used by a Los Angeles dry goods company to call attention to an effort to deliver goods, and on the reverse side was printed: "No response to call. Your package will be on next delivery."

Police Investigating

Mr. Korn reported the matter to the Glendale police department and turned over the card and isinglass to them. He stated he had had no trouble with his neighbors, either on Jackson street, where they live, or on North Brand boulevard, where their place of business is located.

Chief John D. Fraser of the police department said that, while this may be no more than a prank of boys, he intends to trace it to the source, and has ordered an investigation. The Los Angeles Dry Goods Co., whose card was used by the "red" gang, will be interviewed, in an effort to learn if one of their delivery boys was in this section yesterday, he said. The source of the isinglass used for the drawing will also be traced, and boys of the neighborhood will be placed under surveillance. No store in the block is under suspicion, Chief Fraser said.

CLUB WOMEN SEE PRIZE PAINTING

Benjamin Brown's Work Now On Exhibition Showing Winter Scenes

A glimpse of the mountain fairyland of Yosemite valley is seen in Benjamin Brown's prize painting, "The Witchery of Winter," on exhibit until next Tuesday at the Tuesday Afternoon club, North Central avenue and West Lexington drive. The picture has won high praise at exhibits in all parts of California and also the $1000 prize given by the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs. It is being sent to clubs in the district for display.

In his painting, Mr. Brown interpreted the sunrise behind the rim of Half Dome in the upper Yosemite. It is a winter scene and he has handled contrasting colors and the shading wonderfully in painting the snow.

At the club luncheon yesterday Mrs. Roy Ballagh, curator of the fine arts department, read a letter from Mr. Brown, descriptive of the atmosphere in which he received the inspiration for the picture. A copy of this letter will accompany the picture on its journey to the district clubs. The original letter will be kept by the art department of the Glendale club.

Colman Exhibit

John W. Cotton, instructor of the art department, conducted the hour of practical design yesterday morning. For the art appreciation study Mrs. Ballagh sketched the life and works of R. Clarkson Colman, marine painter of Laguna Beach. The department is planning to visit Mr. Colman's studio home Saturday, November 22.

Mrs. Ballagh told the club women yesterday that Mr. Colman came to California and settled at Laguna nine years ago, after study and painting in the east and abroad. His studio is one of the most beautiful and one of the largest in the Laguna art colony. It is located at Arch Beach. One art critic has said of Mr. Colman, "Probably no painter in the west has more than Colman made so intensive study of the sea, its vagaries, moods; its colors, clear or vague, shifting and merging; its everlasting, ever-changing grace of movement."

A collection of Colman pictures is now on exhibit in the banquet hall of the clubhouse.

Tropico Presbyterians Plan Bazaar, Dinner

A bazaar and chicken-pie dinner will be held at the Tropico Presbyterian church Friday, the bazaar opening at 2 o'clock. The dinner will be served cafeteria style from 6 to 8 o'clock. A large assortment of fancy work, aprons, quilts and rag rugs will be on sale and a booth will be arranged for jellies, canned fruits, popcorn and candy. As an entertainment for the children, an orange tree with five and ten-cent oranges of all shapes and sizes is planned. The affair is under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Server, president of the Ladies' Aid society.

Grand View Boy Scouts Hold Bible Meet, Drill

Grand View Boy Scouts held an interesting meeting last night at the home of Oswald Morgan, 1170 Rosedale avenue. The first fifteen minutes of the meeting were devoted to Bible study and later a business meeting and drill work was held. Scoutmaster George W. Thomas, who has been a scoutmaster for thirteen years and now is a special commissioner under the national council says that the Grand View Scouts are the keenest, most responsive boys he has had charge of. They are doing public service such as ushering at church, and are assisting in delivering important messages and notices. A hike through Griffith park is being planned.

Organized Prayer Meet At Grand View Church

All residents of the Grand View district are invited.

Ingenue

MARY ISABELLE ALPAUGH, who has a prominent part in "Adam and Eva," the comedy being presented by Dobinson Players.

"Adam and Eva," George Middleton and Guy Bolton's clever comedy of American home life which is to begin a two week's engagement today at the club playhouse with the Dobinson Players, is a guaranteed laugh-producer and Glendale people are privileged in being able to see a New York production of this kind, in their home city. George C. Pearce will be seen in the role of Mr. King, in which he does a very fine bit of acting as the father of a family of "spenders." Mary I. Alpaugh as Eva, his younger daughter, is delightful, and puts over a part which calls for humor, dignity and charm. William H. Stephens makes an admirable Adam, a characterization which is entirely different from anything he has ever played. Julie De Witt as played by Gertrude Rothe is charming, while Richard Ehlers as Clinton De Witt, her lounging, foppish husband, is exceptionally clever.

Carroll Nye is splendid in the role of Uncle Horace Pilgrim, who came to spend a week-end at one time, and has remained with the family fifteen years. Rosamonde Joyzelle again returns to the company in the role of Aunt Abby Rooker, a very busy club woman. Lord Andrew Gordon, a suitor of Eva's, is cleverly done by Arthur Lovejoy while Thyra Ruhland as Corinthia, the maid, is perfect in the characterization. Completing the cast is Eldon Bullis as Dr. Jack Delamater, in which part he is capable. Many prominent people from Los Angeles, Hollywood and Pasadena are expected tonight to witness the performance, as has been the custom with all the preceding plays.

Motorist Steps on Gas As Holdup Men Appear

C. S. Jordan of 1415 Gardena avenue reported today two men attempted to hold him up at 7:25 o'clock last night, as he was driving on Fourth street between Western and Raymond avenues. Instead of stopping, he stepped on the gas, he said. Police have no description of the men.

"That was some edition The Glendale Evening News got out. I imagine it set some sort of record and certainly it was a masterpiece of typographical and editorial art.

"It is a great pleasure to read The Glendale Evening News and see the way it displays the day's news."

Entire List Of Evening News Subscribers To Be Published; Big Cash Prizes Are Announced

On January 1, 1925, the entire list of subscribers of The Glendale Evening News and their addresses will be published alphabetically. The list of names proposed to be published at that time will occupy from ten to fifteen pages in the regular edition of The Evening News.

The work of segregating and compiling the list has been commenced in the circulation department. Only the names of persons who are bona fide subscribers will be allowed to appear in this list. The laws governing United States government postoffice statements will permit none other.

Every city is judged from the general make-up and community support given to its daily newspaper. For this very reason it is important for Glendale to present to the public the largest possible list of subscribers through The Evening News on next January 1.

There is not any person who is anxious to see his own name in print, but we are all anxious to see eight thousand names published upon that occasion. Many copies of that edition which, by the way, will be designated as the New Year's Number of The Evening News, will go to our friends in the middle west and east, and what can serve as more favorable publicity for our fair city?

The aid of every citizen and of every organization is asked to make this effort a marked success.

A cash prize of $100 is offered to the service club, order, association, fraternal society or organization of any kind with a membership of fifty or more having the highest percentage of its membership as bona fide subscribers to The Glendale Evening News.

A cash prize of $50 will be given to the organization holding second place upon like conditions.

A cash prize of $100 is offered to the church which has the highest percentage of its membership as bona fide subscribers of The Evening News. The second prize is $50 on same conditions.

A suitable and beautiful printed banner will be awarded to the state which has the largest number of representatives as residents of Glendale which has the greatest percentage of its representatives bona fide subscribers to The Glendale Evening News.

December 20, 1924, is the date upon which all lists are to be checked and verified.

For further particulars inquire at the office of The Evening News, 139 South Brand boulevard. Telephone Glendale 4000.

EXCHANGE HEARS TALK ON 'CHECKS'

Judge Lowe Talks to Club Members on Passing Worthless Paper

Judge Frank H. Lowe of the Glendale police court addressed the members of Glendale Exchange club at their noon luncheon yesterday, on "Checks," having particular reference to those without value. The meeting was held at the Masonic temple, 232 South Brand boulevard, President R. E. Johnston presiding.

"The passing of fictitious checks, formerly a profession indulged in by a few experts, has now become a pastime popular with many," he said. "There are enough worthless checks in Glendale to paper a fair-sized room. The situation can be remedied neither by law enactment nor enforcement, but only by the merchants themselves. In cashing checks without proper investigation, they are laying themselves open to the charge of being accessories after the fact.

"Until the merchants stop this promiscuous cashing of checks," said the judge, "these 'artists' will continue to 'draw.'"

WOMAN, BOY PERILED IN CAR CRASH

Pacific Electric Hits Auto Dragging It Almost Half a Block

Miss Geraldine Woolard of 110 South Columbus avenue narrowly escaped serious injury at 8:15 o'clock this morning, when the car in which she was proceeding west on Broadway was struck by a Pacific Electric car going in the same direction. She was dragged nearly half a block.

The accident occurred near the corner of East Broadway and Isabel street. In the car with Miss Woolard was a boy about 10 years old, witnesses said. Neither was injured.

The accident was caused by cars parked at the curb, making the street too narrow at that point to allow passage, Miss Woolard stated in her report to police headquarters. The automobile was badly damaged and the fender of the trolley car bent.

Briggs Begins Work on $12,500 Home on Wing

C. M. Briggs has begun work on a $12,500 home at 601 Wing street. As noted before in The Evening News, it is of California-Spanish style with the stucco tinted in brown. Plans call for six rooms and a basement. In the latter will be installed an electrical unit for automatically controlling the gas, making it possible to turn the heat of any room off or on by merely pressing a button. This super-modern home is being built next to the beautiful residence of J. C. Reilly, 521 Wing, whose place was constructed at a cost of $13,500, having an exterior finish and an interior design that is satisfying in every particular.

Mr. Briggs has purchased a lot opposite his present building enterprise and will erect thereon a six-room stucco costing around $10,000. He says his general program calls for many fine new homes for Glendale during the coming year.

Rigdon Breaks Ground For Addition to Block

To an already imposing structure, 100 feet square, known as the Central and Stocker block, because of its location at the intersection of those streets, Nathan Rigdon is breaking ground for an addition 60 by 100 feet and two stories high to conform with the one already completed.

As in the first unit, the building material will be of tile covered with brown stucco and the plans call for dividing the first floor into three store rooms while the second story space will contain four apartments.

Mr. Rigdon is his own builder and expects to have his addition completed by January 1. He has great faith in the business prospects of Glendale and his first ventures in commercial building in this city have been so well rewarded that he is enthusiastic over further ventures in that direction.

Daily Greeting to News Readers

The thought great wonder with it brings,
My cares are all such little things;
But to the truth my glad faith clings—
He cares for me.
—Marianne Farningham.

OPPORTUNITIES ARE GREAT

There is a feeling among young people that the time and opportunity for doing big things are past, that there is no chance today except for those who have "capital" and "pull." The truth is, there never was a time when opportunities were so many or so great. Determination, ambition and hustle discount capital at every turn and "push" is much more efficient than "pull."

The claim is made that business has become so concentrated that a man starting out independently has no chance. But, the fact is, the concentration of business has opened up high salaried positions being filled by men who could not have done nearly so well independently. The complaint that there are no opportunities is made in every generation by those who wish to excuse their own lack of ambition and fear of work. It was made fifty years ago, but Thomas Cusick, a young man who had learned sign painting, was not one who made it. He went about soliciting jobs of signs to be painted by himself. Recently he sold his outdoor advertising business to a syndicate of New York bankers for $22,000,000.

Not every sign painter could have built up a business like Thomas Cusick. There wouldn't be room for all of them. But Thomas Cusick gave a great many sign painters and others their opportunity to succeed. There are a large number of men in the company making $5000 to $10,000 a year, something they could not do as independent sign painters.

Business is organized on a big scale everywhere in the United States today, but that does not eliminate any of the opportunities for young men and women. There are more high salaried men and women in big business than there were successful, independent business men fifty years ago. Opportunities are ready-made today. They are there for the best man to take. A young man does not have to take the risk of building up a business for himself. He can step into almost any business, and if he is of the right calibre, work himself up.

Opportunities are open in every avenue of activity, business, industry, science, the professions and statesmanship. There are not only opportunities but a demand for young men who are willing to work for advancement.

TOO MUCH SYMPATHY

We have always been taught that sympathy is a virtue, that this would be a hard world without it. But, we have been proved wrong. It now develops that the human race has been dying by millions throughout the ages, all because of too much sympathy. An Austrian surgeon has recently demonstrated that stomach trouble can be cured by severing the sympathetic nerve connecting the brain with the stomach. The theory is that mental shocks are conveyed to the stomach by the sympathetic nerve and the stomach goes wrong. Indigestion, ulcers, inflammation, even cancer result from this conveyance of brain worry to the stomach. By severing the connection, the stomach is saved this shock, so that diseases do not develop there, or if they are already present, they disappear. One of the Mayo brothers, famous surgeons of Rochester, Minn., recently explained to a medical association an operation which consists in severing a sympathetic nerve so that paralyzed members may function again.

In another way sympathy is the cause of loss of life, also. Our judges tell us that it is too much sympathy in the jury and witness boxes that makes us the leading murder nation and results in thousands of deaths by murder.

However, sympathy among friends and for those in trouble will never bring about any evil results, so let us not eliminate it altogether.

VOTERS NOT FOOLS

A Santa Barbara editor, in a lengthy article, takes it upon himself to tell the people where they made mistakes in voting on the eighteen amendments and initiative measures in the recent election. According to this paper, the people made three serious errors. We all had our opinions on these questions before the election, and we still have them, but in matters of this kind, involving as they do, so many different aspects and complications, it is very difficult for one to say he is absolutely sure he is right. Only time can bear out the wisdom or the folly of our decisions, and it seems a little presumptuous for an individual or a newspaper to tell the voters that they made serious errors. The Santa Barbara editor softens the blow, however, by saying the average voter is not the fool he is supposed to be. Wise or unwise, the voter has the deciding voice.

COMMERCIALIZED ATHLETICS

Commercialized athletics are bringing more notoriety than credit upon schools and colleges, and the recent clash between Stanford and California and U. S. C. is only another example proving that the entire system is wrong.

Athletic coaches drawing salaries larger than those of college professors and even presidents, give all their attention to developing a champion team of some kind. The athletic prowess of a few trained athletes is given columns of newspaper space all over the country, while other students, including championship debating teams and those who win other academic honors, are never heard of outside their own schools. One must judge from reading newspapers that the colleges and universities are operating solely to turn out championship athletic teams.

WORK OF SCOUTS GOOD

The part played by the Boy Scouts all over the country in the recent election was commendable. No doubt, these citizens-to-be were instrumental in taking people to the polls who otherwise would not have voted. The experience was good for the voters, impressing them with a greater sense of their responsibility, it brought the boys into closer touch with politics and political methods that may be valuable to them in after life, and it gave them an idea of the duties that will develop upon them when they come into citizenship. The Boy Scouts are zealous in everything they do. Let us hope they will keep their enthusiasm for service after they have reached the voting age.

ONE-PARTY GOVERNMENT

Prior to the election there was considerable fear expressed as to the undesirable complications that might arise from the organization of a third party since our government and institutions had become adjusted to the two-party system. A Democratic friend now rises to remark that our two-party system collapsed in an unexpected way as the result of the election, and it now develops that instead of three parties we have but one.

Crime and Safety

By DR. FRANK CRANE

The crime of Mr. Hight, who poisoned his wife and induced a woman to poison her husband, makes us realize how thin is the crust of our civilization.

It cannot be too often impressed upon us that we are not secure because of our armies and navies and policemen and other things of that sort. Our security every day rests upon the presence of the moral inhibitions of the people about us and of our own.

We are safe, mostly, because most of the people around us are decent. They have decent instincts and an habitual control over their passions. If they did not have they would reduce our whole social fabric to ruin within a week.

Slowly the race has been getting rid of its criminal and destructive instincts. When we read of the crimes of the Borgias and other poisoners of long ago they seem to us to be of a foreign world and of different people from ourselves.

Such an occurrence as that of the Hight murder makes us realize that we are still human, that there is still something in us of the age of the Borgias, and that our development has not proceeded very far.

It seems impossible for most of us to realize that people could commit such atrocious murders. Most of us revolt at the thought of it, and our safety from such acts consists in the strength of the universal revulsion at them.

This Mr. Hight seems to be a strange case. Although a minister of the gospel, he did not sufficiently curb his evil passions and was willing to sacrifice anything in order to gratify them. The usual restraints found in religion and morality did not hold with him.

It is well for the world that there are few men capable of descending to such depths of crime.

Horoscope

Mercury in malefic aspect dominates this day according to astrology. Venus is adverse.

It is a day when it is well to avoid making any sort of agreements as plans of every sort may be unfortunate.

Special care should be exercised regarding writings of every sort and bad luck may attend the signing of contracts.

Persons connected with the theater should be exceedingly cautious about making new connections while this planetary government prevails.

One of the moods to be combatted is that of financial apprehension, which may be prevalent, owing to the sinister influence of Mercury.

With the closing of the year many unpleasant rumors affecting the administration of public affairs in more than one large city may be expected.

It is perhaps superfluous to announce that this is not a lucky wedding day and all who marry under this rule will do well to watch the coming and going of letters.

Women are to feel dissatisfaction regarding political rewards, for they will not obtain their share of recognition now that preelection pledges must be made good, the seers foretell.

Changes in fashions will to observant men and women and women symbolize corresponding changes in customs that are to supersede those now prevailing.

Once more astrologers forecast national reform movements that will sweep from coast to coast.

Grave and serious thoughts are to take the place of the light and careless mental processes of recent days.

The death of a famous actor appears to be presaged for the end of the year.

Persons whose birthdate it is should be extraordinarily careful in conducting all business connected with deeds or contracts of every sort.

Children born on this day may be uncommonly imaginative and temperamental. They should be trained to the most exact system of living and thinking.

SHOCKING STOCKING

"That's what I call getting a run for my money," observed the good loser as she contemplated an unraveling in her new $10 silk hose.

Who's Who

The man who overthrew the Lloyd George government two years ago, only to find himself forced to step out in favor of the labor government, now assumes once more the reins of power in Great Britain. He is Stanley Baldwin.

Baldwin is known as a diplomat but the diplomatic service is a business with him. He handles his duties as premier in the same decisive style that he directs the activities of the Baldwin Iron works, enormous Welsh concern, of which he is the head.

His first position of importance was financial secretary to the treasury, which office he held from 1917 to 1921. It was in this department that his financial genius was first realized. He was sent to the board of trade as president with a seat in the cabinet. This position corresponds to that of the American secretary of commerce. Baldwin was, in very truth, the Hoover of England, and he quickly added to the reputation which he had already earned at the treasury. The post-war trade of England prospered as his own business has prospered with a Baldwin at the helm.

He was one of the first cabinet ministers to revolt from the coalition. Therein lay his courage. Not many men of that time had the temerity to try to break down Lloyd George's political despotism.

But Baldwin, comparatively a young politician, not only did so, but had as much to do with the success of the seceding movement as anybody else. He was one of the leading spirits in the Carlton club meeting which brought the break to a head. The coalition was dead, after seven years of stormy rule.

England's reversion to party government brought the Conservative government to power for the first tice since 1906. Baldwin was then in the office of the Baldwin Iron works. He had two more years to go before he even entered the house.

He was chancellor of the exchequer in the Tory ministry that succeeded the coalition government. One of the thorniest problems he was called upon to tackle was the funding of the American debt. His predecessor, Sir Robert Horne, had made arrangements for the funding operation before the coalition fell and Baldwin had to take up the task. He came over to America at the head of a small mission of bankers and aids and put through an arrangement that was subsequently accepted by both the American and the British governments.

Today's Poem

VERDUGO WOODLANDS

Have you driven through Verdugo Woodlands,
Seen those calm and stately hills,
Breathed the fragrance of its snowy yucca,
Heard its streamlets' trills;
Touched the stillness of its canyons,
Seen its flowered plains in gorgeous masses,
Heard the whisper of life's mystery,
As the shadows quiver o'er its grasses?

You should see the tall Verdugo hills,
Feel the rest their freedom brings,
Touch the harp of nature there,
Hear the songs of winged things.
Lay aside man's simple, empty world,
If but for a fleeting day;
Expand your heart with nature's repertoire,
That sings in happy, ardent lay.
Let your soul in rapture soar to castled heights,
And soft capped hills in deep blue dome,
That call to fancy's lithesome flights,
And lift the thought to Life's great Home.
—AGNES HENDERSON.

10 Years Ago

Mr. Goodrich is having the grounds about the old adobe put in nice order. The house will be allowed to remain for the present. It seems a pity to lose such old landmarks, but no doubt it will be torn down to make way for a modern residence in the near future.

Tuesday night there will be a big mass meeting at the Glendale High school to decide finally upon a city park.

There is a "trade at home" sentiment being worked up in Glendale among the city's loyal residents that is spreading and will ultimately work great good for the city.

THE LOST LEGION

(New York Herald Tribune)

Here are four bleak lines from the latest of the thousand and one night's tales of Bagdad-on-the-Hudson:

An official of the Missing Persons Bureau said late yesterday: "We have had 10,517 cases of missing persons reported to us since January 1. Franklin Roshek is just one of them."

One may fancy them on a pilgrimage, this Lost Legion, slipping almost hourly through the gates of reality into the shadowy land of surmise. Most of them carry some burden of trouble. A few walk by an inner light of hope. Pitiful children, bent upon some high, unformed adventure; old folk wandering they know not where; confused, unhappy girls, and men who travel only by night. But 10,000 of them in nine months! It is an army. Such a figure paralyzes the imagination.

Fortunately, most of them reconsider their pet maladjustment and reluctantly return to the old routine and a steady diet. Others reveal themselves years later, perhaps, half-way around the globe. But the police say there is a tragic 2 per cent which just become "statistics." These are the grim remainder of the problem.

What is the strange, destructive element back of it all? Cities could be populated with these missing souls. The continent was claimed with less. Small towns suffer no such losses. Is it the lure of the maelstrom, the dizziness engendered at the brink of the abyss? Is it the centripetal force of such a vast agglomeration of human molecules as cohere in New York?

Probably there are 10,517 answers to this year's losses alone, each, if we could know the details, a full formed romance. And as the tide goes out the very memory of it is erased in the eager, larger oncoming tide of the city's newcomers.

H. C. OF SHOE LEATHER

There had been a good deal of kicking among the rookies as to the supplies being handed out by the Q. M. department.

"Say," demanded the supply sergeant of a diminutive John who had been especially vociferous, "wot if they are a little too big? Do you know what them shoes cost?"

"Wal," answered the other, as he inspected his new footgear, "they must of cost a right smart lot. They got purty nigh a whole cow in them."

ALL SET

"What do you want with cartridges this time of year?" asked the backwoods storekeeper of the mountaineer who had asked for a large supply of ammunition. "There's no hunting now."

"Just gettin' prepared. Jeb Shaw had a fallin' out with my brother, Sam, over Smithville way, an' if Jeb shoots him, it'll save me a lot of time if I don't hafta go into town after ca'tridges."

Church Closes 5-Weeks' Visitation Campaign

Closing a five weeks' campaign of visitation, resulting in 6500 calls being made, over 250 workers met last night at a banquet at the Central Christian church. Floyd Mercer, chairman of the campaign, presided. Reports showed thirty-seven of the workers have 100 per cent records. Plans were outlined for the fifth annual "homecoming day," Sunday, November 23, at the church. At that time all former and present members will rally. There will be a thanks offering and evangelism will be stressed. It is hoped to add at least 100 members to the church on that day. Next week, preliminary to "homecoming day," a week of personal evangelism will be observed, workers calling on prospective members.

Rally Is Planned for Tomorrow at Church

Young and old of the First Methodist church have been invited to a rally tomorrow night at the church. Dinner is to be served at 6:30 o'clock. Speakers are to be Dr. Lincoln A. Ferris, Rev. H. I. Rasmus, H. V. Adams and W. A. Goss. There will also be music by an orchestra. The invitation has been issued by the official board of the church.

WOMAN, 61, HANGS SELF FROM FENCE

Miss Elen Lee, Cleveland Road, Found Dead by Sister Today

Miss Ellen Lee of 1517 Cleveland road, 61 years old, committed suicide last night by hanging. The body was discovered early this morning by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. She had been in poor health for some time, and was under the care of a doctor, according to Mrs. Tigh, who is her sister. She had been living with the family for forty years.

Glendale police department was notified and Lieutenant Louis B. Nunn investigated and found the woman had left the house through her bedroom window. She was fully dressed.

According to Mrs. Tigh, she had retired at 10 o'clock last night and there had been no suspicious sounds from her bedroom. When Mr. and Mrs. Tigh rose at 4 o'clock this morning and went to look for Miss Lee, the bed was empty. The county coroner's office has been notified and the body removed to the L. G. Scovern Co. undertaking parlors.

MOTHER OF HERO ON TRIBUTE PAID

Mrs. Edward Writes The News In Appreciation Of Floral Offering

Tribute paid yesterday to the memory of the late Clarence Edwards was appreciated by his mother, Mrs. Johanna E. Edwards of 369 West California avenue, as shown in the following letter written to The Glendale Evening News:

"When reading The Evening News last night, for I have been a subscriber ever since the first publication twenty years ago, I noticed on the second page the list of heroes buried at Forest Lawn Memorial park. But to my great sorrow my dear boy's name was not among them and it made me feel very sad and tears fell upon the paper I was reading.

"But every cloud has its silver lining. When I came to page seven, column seven, I saw something which gave me cheer. It was about the gift of Warren's flower store, a beautiful floral piece, the emblem of Old Glory, placed on the grave of my dear one by the American Legion. Words fail me to express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the flower store and to the legion."

T. G. LOVE JOINS FINANCE CONCERN

Financier, Former Banker Becomes Member Board Of Directors

The board of directors of the Gibraltar Finance corporation has been strengthened by the addition of Thomas G. Love, 220 West Elk avenue, one of the best known financiers of this section. Mr. Love became connected with the institution this week and demonstrated his faith in the organization by purchasing a large block of the securities of the corporation, it is said.

Mr. Love has been a resident of Glendale for the past ten years, during which time he has dealt extensively in real estate securities and is said to be thoroughly conversant with real estate securities in this section.

Prior to coming to Glendale Mr. Love was in the banking and mortgage business in Illinois. He was one of the original stockholders and directors in the First National bank of Illinois and served in that capacity for fifteen years. He was a director in the Bank of Commerce of Wheeler, Illinois, and was actively engaged in the management of the John H. Shup Co., investment bankers. The latter company dealt exclusively in real estate securities. Mr. Love's activities in connection with this company consisted of appraising property and approving loans. This experience enables Mr. Love to be of exceptional value to the Gibraltar Investment corporation, as a member of the board of directors, it is said.

Familiar with Details

Due to the fact that Mr. Love is thoroughly familiar with the many essentials and details involved in handling mortgages, his assertions to the effect that there is no safer form of investment than the mortgage business, such as is handled by the Gibraltar Finance corporation, carries a great deal of weight, according to officials of the corporation. He is said to base his belief along this line on experience gained through the many years of active operations. The wonderful growth of Glendale and the very extensive building activities have created an unprecedented demand for money, all of which affords exceptional opportunity for such a business as is carried on by the Gibraltar Finance corporation, according to Mr. Love.

Marvin Smith, president of the Gibraltar Finance corporation, states that the sale of the concern's securities has been beyond all expectations. The subscribers to this corporation are beginning to read like "Who's who in Glendale," he said. A dividend on the preferred stock is assured January 1, Mr. Smith states, and adds that the securities of the Gibraltar Finance corporation make a very excellent Christmas gift and can be purchased on small down payments and monthly payments thereafter.

Now is the time to invest your money with this growing corporation and participate in its profits, he said. The main office is located at 218 South Brand boulevard, with branch offices at Santa Monica, Pasadena and Hollywood.

U. S. C. PROFESSOR SPEAKS AT CLUB

Mt. Hollywood Members Hear Dr. Woellner at Police Chief's Home

Dr. Frederic P. Woellner of the University of California, southern branch, delivered an address before the Mt. Hollywood club last night on "Making Democracy Safe for the World," in the home of Col. and Mrs. John D. Fraser, 643 North Maryland avenue.

The cause of the progressive was championed by Dr. Woellner, who pleaded against conservatives, reactionaries and radicals alike. A true progressive is a composite of all three, in proper proportions, he said.

World Getting Better

The world is gradually getting better, according to Dr. Woellner, who finds his proofs for this in history. "There is nothing wrong with the engine," he said, speaking of the American government. "The knocking is among the nuts in the back seat!"

Dr. Woellner's remarks were preceded by vocal selections from Miss Urvyna Diest, "Japanese Love Song" being one of her most charming numbers. Refreshments were served. The meeting was presided over by R. J. Harwood, president of the Mt. Hollywood club, whose object is the consideration of current events. Col. and Mrs. Fraser joined the club three years ago, when they were living in Hollywood, and before he became chief of the Glendale police department.

Not Escrow but SECURITY Escrow

When a realtor has escrowed the transaction in the SECURITY BANK in Glendale he is likely to mention the fact that it's a SECURITY Escrow.

This is because he knows, and his clients know, that every transaction handled by the Escrow Department of the SECURITY BANK is given the prompt attention and care of a staff of men and women who have been chosen for their unusual ability along these lines. And finally because the name SECURITY, which has stood for integrity and safety for thirty-five years, is back of the function of the Escrow Department.

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, Jr.
Of The Evening News Staff.

Whether or not the Dynamiters gridders will cinch three pennants will be determined Friday when the Glendale lightweights meet the South Pasadena class B eleven on the latter's field. Both the Class A and C teams have cinched their respective pennants and the lights have an excellent chance of winning.

If the locals lose, South Pasadena will be tied for first place, and a playoff will probably be the result. However, the moors' 130's recently beat the Tigers by a good sized margin, and the locals trimmed Monrovia, 5 to 0.

Coach Butterfield's backfield, which has been working wonders lately, will be on the job in Friday's game. Harris will probably do most of the punting for the young Dynamiters, while Levell will attend to the place kicking.

Heavyweight Game

Although Coach Hayhurst's Dynamiters have cinched the Central loop flag, they are going into tomorrow's game to win. Since the game is at home, a crowd of over 6000 persons is expected to jam Broadway field to see the locals play their last league game.

During the game with Covina Coach Hayhurst sent in not one substitute. Bill Bradbury, second string center, played the entire game at right tackle on the offensive, and halfback on the defensive. Droopy Phillips, whom Hayhurst took from the line to develop into a backfield man, was worked overtime playing defensive tackle and offensive fullback. Phillips stood the strain well and played a wonderful game for the Dynamiters.

Elmer Muff and Carl Denney may or may not get in the game. Muff's injuries are practically all right, and his value to the team warrants his presence in the backfield.

Ellswoth de Parcq and Leslie Lavelle will fill the end positions. Dotson wil be at tackle, Fannon and Morrison at guards, and Cecil Zaun at center.

Rising's Hot Dogs rose up and smote the Red Feathers in a major league bowling match last night at the Recreation alleys. The first two games went to the Hot Dog crew by safe majorities, but the third game was won by the Red Feathers with only two pins to spare. Dawson, who had a streak of hard luck in the second game, came back strong in the third, getting 210. A. T. W., anchor man for the Hot Dogs, was high score man, getting 244 in the last game. He made eight straight strikes after a poor start. Maggie of the losers rolled consistent ball—212, 201, 201. The scores:

Marty Farrell will attempt a comeback tonight when he meets Kid Mexico at the Wilmington A. C., provided he does not do one of his famous "fadeouts" before the bout starts and neglects to crawl between the ropes. Billy Lane and Jimmy Marcus meet in the semi-windup. Young Farrell and Teddy Seideman meet in the special spot. Four good preliminaries round out the bill.

SPORTDOM ALL OVER

By JOSEPH L. KELLEY
Of The Evening News Staff.

Line will form to the right Friday night at the Legion's stadium in Hollywood. The Big Bambino has turned fight manager. Dick Hoppe, native of Glendale and a member of the light weight division will have Babe Ruth in his corner. A clout for the circuit in the roped arena means just about the same as it does on the diamond. Hoppe should profit by the advice of Babe. If Hoppe shows he has the "home run" stuff packed away under the tape, Babe promises to take him to the Big Town and let Tex Rickard take a look at him.

Ring worms who cling to the rafters of Madison Square Garden will give Hoppe the once-over and tell him just how much he knows about the Queensberry rules. The Glendale boy seems to have the stuff fighters spring from. Tommy Carter, his playmate Friday night, knows something about the fistic art also. Babe should see some sparks fly from his protege if Tommy's left be working on all six.

Four rounds is hardly enough to judge this pair by. Wait until Gov. Richardson signs that 12-round party. Then the boys can hold one of those thumbs-up-or-down parties that were popular in the Roman amphitheatres when Old Nero played 'How Dry I Am' while Caesars's life work went up in smoke.

Washington flashes the news that "Bucky" Harris has been signed to manage the victorious Senators for 1925. Does anyone know any good reason why "Bucky" shouldn't be signed? If so let him speak now or forever keep his trap closed.

Paris is getting a great kick out of "Muggsy" McGraw's Giants and old Pop Cominsky's White Sox. Here's the classical language used by one of the crack sports writers in the town made famous by Peggy Joyce, George Carpentier and the League of Nations, in describing a one-to-nothing game.

"It is the mathematical precision produced by the remarkable virtuosity of professionals that gives the game its monotonous aspect." Shades of "Shoeless Joe" Jackson. When "Muggsy" read that requiem he was reported blowing the collar off a stein in the Montmartre. Long George Kelly was pulling the cork from a bottle of Mum's when "Muggsy" nudged him under the short ribs and asked him to find the story about the game. He thought the writer was recounting "Hell Marie" Dawes' reparation plan.

Four thousand miles from here in that part of the Empire state so thinly populated that state troopers on Arabian steeds are needed to cover the "beats" once a month, the boys in the "hot stove" league are telling this one:

Theodore McGoosh, an onion grower, living on Gayville Road, limbered up the old paint brush and prepared to slap a few gallons onto the old homestead to keep the rain out and the heat in. Gayville boys are anything but versatile, so when Theo got the brushes limbered up, he got down on knees and vowed he wouldn't use the Gillette until the job was all slapped.

The Old Homestead had all the coloring of a Thanksgiving dinner when Theo dropped the brush and sat down on the Lord to survey his work and measure his whiskers. They were just two inches shorter than Old Dobbin's tail. An extra gallon of paint was needed to supply the deficit that mixed with Theo's whiskers during the slapping.

The flivver was called upon to give some of its life's blood to remove the paint from the whiskers, and, after the application, Theo struck a match to light the old corncob. The referee called the game, claiming hitting in the clinches wasn't according to Hoyle. Theo will live.

Across the border in Tia Juana tequila brewers are running short of cactus, working overtime in anticipation of the movie stars' salaries that will drop when the racing season opens Turkey Day. Tia Juana will devote 125 working days to peddling cactus juice and limbering up selling platters to face the barrier. All revolutions are called off during this time to give the boys a chance to barter their loot at the bookie stands.

Tod Sloan, one time premier jockey, ex-husband of Julia Sanderson, musical comedy star and, until he reached the Tia Juana race course a few days ago, chief brass rail polisher at Dinty Moore's refreshment booth in New York's "Roarin' Forties," beat all the eastern boys to it. He was two jumps ahead of Tom Sharkey, ex-sailor, heavyweight and saloon keeper, to the Tia Juana barrier.

It ain't gonna rain no more.

TIGERS, SAGEHENS TIED FOR FIRST

Oxy Beats Caltek, 7-6, and Pomona Trims Whittier 13-0 Yesterday

Pomona and Occidental are tied for first place in the Southern California conference standings as the result of wins by both teams yesterday. The Sagehens downed Whittier on the Poets' field, 13 to 0, while the Tigers were clawing Caltek 7 to 6, at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The defeat kept Caltek in the cellar with four losses and no wins, while Whittier is tied with Redlands for second place.

Caltek scored the opening score shortly after the game started, Aldeman and Foster starting a march which the Tiger line could not intercept. Foster failed to convert, a feat that spelled defeat later. Oxy evened up touchdowns in the second quarter after Ridderhoff had peeled off 34 yards on an end run, and Wheeler passed over the goal line to Mishkin. Wheeler won the game by making the placekick.

The Tigers came close to scoring another touchdown in the third quarter when Buckman carried the ball 45 yards in four runs and placed the ball on the one-yard line. On a buck through center, Oxy lost the ball on a fumble and Caltek kicked out of danger.

Sagehens Win

Pomona scored its first touchdown in the first five minutes of play, receiving the kickoff and marching down the field to the goal line, with Bell carrying the ball for the first score, and Merrick kicked goal. The second touchdown came in the next quarter when Clark went over on linebucking. The Poets were saved from further humiliation in the same quarter when the end of the half prevented another play with the ball on Pomona's one-yard line after a long pass.

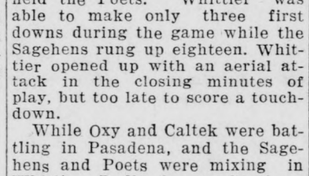
The Sagehens played a defensive game in the second half and held the Poets. Whittier was able to make only three first downs during the game while the Sagehens rung up eighteen. Whittier opened up with an aerial attack in the closing minutes of play, but too late to score a touchdown.

While Oxy and Caltek were battling in Pasadena, and the Sagehens and Poets were mixing in Whittier, Redlands and Southern Branch were playing a scoreless tie at Redlands. Redlands excelled at the passing game, completing seven, while Southern Branch made only two. Only two penalties were levied during the game, both being for offside by Redlands.

The Riverside American Legion team defeated the U. S. S. Tennessee warriors 9 to 7 in an exciting game at Riverside. The sailors scored their touchdown in the last few minutes of play after two long passes. LaVerne college defeated California Christian college, 24 to 0, at La Verne. St. Agnes won from Oneonta Military academy, 6 to 0.

Bakersfield High school team showed up as dangerous foes when they trimmed the Oxy Frosh, 14 to 0, at Bakersfield. Lombard swamped Carroll, 75 to 3. Bates downed Colby, 13 to 0. New Mexico Military institute nosed out West Texas Teachers, 14 to 13. Wakeforest walked over Trinity, 32 to 0. Utah Aggies smothered Wyoming university in a Rocky Mountain Conference game, 25 to 2, and the University of New Mexico kicked to victory over the University of Arizona, 3 to 0.

In high school circles the Huntington Park lightweights won over Redondo, 30 to 0. Orange retained its place in the Orange league by besting Huntington Park, 30 to 6.



Fidel LaBarba and Jimmy McLarnin boxed to a draw last night at Vernon, the scrap being one of the fastest and most furious the arena has ever known. LaBarba, Olympic lightweight champion of the world, fought back desperately after being knocked down in the opening round. Jimmy Laventhal knocked out Sailor Berger in the second round. Babe Harris got a draw with Mickey White. Young Papke won over Eddie Sylvester, with Babe Ruth acting as referee. Joe Lyman won a close decision over Kid Ledger, who was handled by Sam Langford. Alex Trambitas won the decision over Joe Kelly. Larry Murphy got the decision over Jimmy Hackley in an uninteresting bout.

AT PHILLIPSBURG, Pa.—Harry Greb of Pittsburgh knocked out Ray Nelson, Philadelphia, three rounds. Dick Conlon, Altoona, defeated Pedro Camp of Philadelphia, six rounds; Mickey Burkett, Altoona, lost to Johnny Jadic of Philadelphia, in second round, claiming a fractured hand.

Change Is Made In Local High School Football Schedule

A last-minute change in the Glendale football schedule was announced today by Coach Hayhurst of the Dynamiters. The original schedule was: Glendale vs. South Pasadent (lightweights) at South Pasadena Thursday, and Glendale vs. South Pasadena (heavyweights) at Glendale on Friday. The heavyweights will play here Thursday and the lightweights will play at South Pasadena on Friday, Coach Hayhurst said. The change was made to enable the regular Dynamiters an opportunity to witness a game in tunity to witness a game in which one of their probable opponents in the play-off for the Southern California title will play.

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Several important coaches with whom the writer has talked recently about the so-called "huddle" system of giving football signals, expect to see the practice discontinued after this year.

The huddle system, for the benefit of any who may not happen to know, means just what the word indicates. The players huddle together back of the scrimmage line and presumably the quarterback tells them what they are going to do. Then—sometimes—there ensues a debate as to whether that is the best thing to do. This should not happen if the team is well disciplined, but there have been cases where the debate reached such proportions that the opposing players heard what it was all about and took measures accordingly.

At any rate, the players, after receiving their instructions, are compelled to jump back and get into the scrimmage to meet their opponents. Of course, all this rigamarole puts speed out of the question. More than that, the officials are not always certain whether players who have been in the huddle, are actually at a complete standstill as the rule requires them to be, before the ball is put into play.

The huddle method is used because it gives the players a better chance to hear the signals when there is a huge crowd present and the cheering is a din. At Army and Navy games, both sides keep up a constant uproar which some day will be discontinued, as it is annoying to spectators as well as players. There is nothing gained by the constant yelling.

The great objection to the huddle, and it is a very pertinent one, is that it will slow down any team that uses it. The players, instead of taking advantage of any momentum they may have gained by a long gain, hop back, put their heads together, and give their opponents a chance to catch their breath and rally their forces for a stand.

Teams which have not used the huddle system this year are certainly a deal more sprightly than those which have, and most of them will finish the season with better records than the huddlers. The huddle is merely another of those superfluities, most of them the invention of dreamers who are everlastingly trying to figure out some new trick for the gaining of ground. The line shift and the whole category of freak plays is based on the same idea. All of them are foreign to the real football theory of advancing the ball by straight attack.

Auto and Windshield Wings Reported Taken

Mrs. Amanda R. Traxler of 235 West Loraine street reports the theft of her car from the corner of Colorado boulevard and Louise street at 8:30 o'clock last night. J. R. Carline of 1332 North Columbus avenue reports the windshield wings stolen from his car at 9:30 o'clock last night, while it was parked at the corner of West Broadway and Orange street.

DYNAMITE BABES LAND LOOP TITLE

Win Central League Class C Pennant by Defeating Covina High 47-0

Two thousand spectators who assembled yesterday at Broadway field got in on a good track meet if they didn't see a football game. Coach Wolfe's prodigies, the Firecrackers rolled up forty-seven digits and the Central league class C pennant by just naturally running away from their opponents, who didn't know what it was all about.

The locals tarried five minutes at the start of the game until Monte Killinger took a Covina punt and ran fifty-five yards for the first touchdown.

At the first of the second quarter Frank Wykoff circled right end for sixty yards on an end pass play. The crestfallen Covina Babes kicked off to Bill Mainland on the Glendale five-yard line. Mainland caught the ball, and didn't stop running until he had passed the Covina goal line for the third Glendale score.

Race Horse Speed

In the third quarter Mainland added another score with a fifteen-yard end run. A little later Dick Sunderland sneaked under the line from the Covina three-yard line for the fifth Red and Black tally. Frank Wykoff uncorked another sixty-yard dash for another six points before the quarter ended.

At this stage of the game Coach Wolfe withdrew his first string men, sending in eleven reserves, who continued the Covina massacre by pushing over the last touchdown, Raymond Nutt carrying the ball ten yards on an off-tackle play.

Lovell was on hand with his educated toe and booted the ball over the bar four times in six tries. Jerry Osier added the extra marker after the last touchdown.

The terms and conditions under which said franchise is offered for sale are as follows:

(a) That the electrical transmission and distribution system to be constructed and operated under said franchise shall be built in a good and workmanlike manner and of good material, and that all wires extending over and along any of said streets or highways shall be placed at least twenty (20) feet from the ground, or at such other reasonable height or distance therefrom as said City Council of the City of Glendale may by ordinance or resolution provide, and in conformity with the statutes of the State of California and the rules and regulations of the Railroad Commission of the State of California, or any other public body having jurisdiction to prescribe the mode of construction of said system. Provided, also, that said poles and appliances shall be located where directed by permit from the Superintendent of Streets of said City of Glendale, and that prior to the erection of said poles and appliances grantee of said franchise shall apply to the Superintendent of Streets for a permit to construct the same, which said permit shall be granted by said Superintendent of Streets and shall designate the location on said streets where said poles and appliances shall be located. (b) And unless otherwise ordered, all poles shall be placed flush with the outer edge of the streets and highways where there are no sidewalks and where the property is not platted, and flush with the curb lines where there are sidewalks or the property is platted, and adjacent poles shall not be placed nearer together than one hundred (100) feet except at street crossings and cross-roads unless directed or permitted by the Superintendent of Streets. When any of said poles or wires shall become an obstruction to the use of any of said streets or highways or dangerous to the use thereof, said City Council of the City of Glendale shall have the right to order them relocated or remodeled at the expense of the grantee of said franchise, its successors or assigns, to avoid such obstruction or danger.

(c) That the work of erecting the poles and wires hereunder shall be commenced in good faith within not more than four (4) months from the granting of said franchise, and, if not so commenced within said time, said franchise shall be declared forfeited; provided, however, that for good cause shown, the City Council of the City of Glendale may, by resolution, extend the time for completion thereof, not exceeding three (3) months. The work hereunder shall be prosecuted diligently and in good faith by the grantee of said franchise so as to meet and fill the reasonable needs of the inhabitants of the territory for the services for which said franchise is granted.

(d) That the said grantee or its successors or assigns shall, during the life of said franchise, pay to the City of Glendale in lawful money of the United States two per cent of the gross annual receipts of such grantee, its successors or assigns, arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise; provided, however, that no percentage shall be paid for the first five (5) years succeeding the date of this franchise.

It shall be the duty of the grantee of said franchise and its successors or assigns to file with the Clerk of the City of Glendale at the expiration of one year after said period of five (5) years, and at the expiration of each and every year thereafter, a statement verified by the oath of said grantee or its successors or assigns, or by the oath of the manager or other authorized officer of said grantee, or its successors or assigns, showing in detail the total gross earnings collected or received by said grantee or its successors or assigns during the preceding twelve (12) months for the use, sale, rental or furnishing of electricity for light, power, heat or any other purpose whatsoever from any part of the system for the construction and operation of which said franchise is granted, and within ten (10) days after the time for filing the aforesaid statement, it shall be the duty of said grantee, its successors or assigns, to pay to the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale, the aggregate sum of said percentage upon the amount of the gross annual receipts arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise, and, if the amount paid is incorrect in the judgment of the City Council, it may order the payment of such additional sum as it may find due hereunder, and if not paid the same may be collected by suit. Any neglect, omission or refusal by said grantee, or its successors or assigns, to file said verified statement or to pay said percentage of the said gross annual receipts at the time or in the manner hereinbefore provided shall work a forfeiture of said franchise and of all the rights thereunder to the City of Glendale.

(e) That whenever any portion of the territory covered by said franchise shall be annexed to, or otherwise become a part of, any other municipal corporation, or of the County of Los Angeles, or any other county, the rights reserved under said franchise to the City of Glendale or any officer thereof shall inure to the benefit of such municipal corporation or county, and its appropriate officers.

(f) That the said grantee or its successors or assigns shall not sell, transfer or assign said franchise or any of the rights or privileges granted thereby, except by a duly executed instrument in writing filed in the office of the Clerk of the City of Glendale; and provided further, that nothing in said franchise contained shall be construed to grant to said grantee or its successors or assigns, any right to sell, transfer or assign said franchise or any of the rights and privileges thereby granted, except in the manner aforesaid.

(g) That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise shall work a forfeiture thereof and the said City, by its City Council, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited and may exclude said grantee or its successors or assigns from further use of the highways of said city under said franchise; and the said grantee or its successors or assigns shall thereupon surrender, upon demand by appropriate instrument in writing, all rights in and to the same, and said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

The grant of said franchise shall be effective only upon the further condition that the grantee shall, at all times during the life of said franchise, keep on file with the City Council a bond running to said City of Glendale in the penal sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), with sureties to be approved by said City Council, conditioned upon said bidder well and truly observing, fulfilling and performing each and every term and condition of said franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of said bond the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties on said bond; provided, however, that if said bond shall not be so filed, the award of said franchise shall be set aside and the money paid therefor shall be forfeited, and said franchise shall be, in the discretion of the City Council, re-advertised and again offered for sale in the same manner and under the same restrictions as herein provided. If said bond be not so filed and kept on file, said franchise shall be void and of no effect, and any money paid therefor or thereunder shall be forfeited.

Said franchise shall be granted on the condition that all expenses of sale and of advertising said franchise shall be paid by the successful bidder, and unless so paid said franchise shall be forfeited.

NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN that sealed bids in writing will be received for said franchise up to ten o'clock A. M. on the 4th day of December, 1924, and at the time above mentioned, and in the Council room of the City Council of the City of Glendale, any and all sealed bids will be opened; that all bids must be for the payment of a stated sum in gold coin of the United States, and that the said franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation who makes the highest cash bid therefor, provided only that at the time of the opening of said bids any responsible person, firm or corporation present or represented may bid for said franchise or privilege a sum of not less than ten per cent (10%) above the highest sealed bid therefor, and said bid so made may be raised not less than ten per cent (10%) by any other responsible bidder, and said bidding may so continue until finally said franchise shall be struck off, sold and awarded to the highest bidder therefor in gold coin of the United States by said City Council.

That each sealed bid shall be accompanied with cash or a certified check payable to the Treasurer of the City of Glendale for the full amount of such bid, and no sealed bid shall be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith, and the successful bidder shall deposit at least ten per cent (10%) of the amount of his bid with the Clerk of the City of Glendale before the franchise shall be struck off to him. If the successful bidder shall fail to make such deposit immediately, then and in that case his bid shall not be received and shall be considered as void, and the said franchise shall then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit as above mentioned. Said procedure shall be had until said franchise is struck off, sold and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least ten per cent (10%) and in case said party shall fail to deposit with the Clerk of the City of Glendale the remaining ninety per cent (90%) of his bid within twenty-four (24) hours after its acceptance, the award to it of said of the amount of his bid therefor, as herein provided.

That the successful bidder shall deposit with the Clerk of the City of Glendale within twenty-four (24) hours after the acceptance of his bid the remaining ninety per cent (90%) of the amount thereof, and, in case he or it shall fail to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made shall be forfeited and the said award of said franchise shall be void, and the said franchise shall then and there by said City Council, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as therefore provided, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor and be struck off, sold and awarded; franchise shall be set aside and the deposit theretofore made by it shall be forfeited, and no further proceedings for a sale of said franchise shall be had, unless the same shall be re-advertised and again offered for sale in the manner hereinbefore provided.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the successful bidder for such franchise or privilege struck off, sold or awarded to him or it shall file, and keep on file, a bond running to the City of Glendale with at least two good and sufficient sureties to be approved by said City Council, in the penal sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), conditioned that such bidder shall well and truly observe, fulfil and perform each and every term and condition of such franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of such bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages, and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. Said bond shall be filed with said City Council within five (5) days after the said franchise is awarded, and upon the filing and approval of such bond, the said franchise shall, by said City Council, be granted to the person, firm or corporation to whom it has been struck off, sold or awarded, and in case said bond shall not be so filed, the award of said franchise shall be set aside, and any money paid therefor shall be forfeited.

The City Council hereby expressly reserves the right to reject any or all bids for said franchise.

Confidence of People Is Gained by Coolidge

any expenditure if it were not justified. There probably will be an increase in pay to the postal clerks. It seems to be admitted on all sides that the clerks are underpaid, but the question that has to be solved is from what source the increased revenue is to be obtained—from increased rates on parcel post or second class matter or a revision of all postal rates.

Better Mail Service

The postal service is not as efficient as the American people would like to have it. Excessive economies in the last few years, especially in the railway mail service, have interfered with efficiency. It sometimes takes two days to get mail from New York to Washington—a five hour run on the railroads. Airplane mail is assisting materially in transcontinental service, but the demand is growing for better mail service on the short distance runs.

Government finances are in splendid shape. The new tax law has not brought a deficit, but a surplus. Will congress give the American people the benefit of lower taxes or will it insist on spending the surplus? President Coolidge's leadership on this issue will be revealed in the message now being prepared for the December session of congress. Mr. Coolidge promised earlier in the year to continue his efforts for tax revision. It is unlikely that he will forget.

There are some glaring inequities in the present law. The president did not feel justified in vetoing the whole law to secure a revision of any portion of it. A campaign was ahead and he couldn't imperil tax relief by a veto. But now the situation has changed.

Balance of Power

Even with a congress in which the La Follette radicals hold the balance of power, for they remain in office until next March, the president can, if he chooses present a measure for amendment of the present act and some of the insurgent Republicans may not be as anxious to oppose Mr. Coolidge as they were several months ago. The election returns may have had a salutary effect on those who would obstruct merely for individual or partisan advantage.

With reference to the present tax law, there will be some interesting data sought from the treasury as to the productivity of the new rates. It would not be surprising to find that the real reason for the surplus is not the lower rates at all but the enforcement of the law. Several new administrative provisions were inserted by the treasury in the last law, based upon experience with evasions and avoidance. Many loopholes have been plugged.

Even had the old 1922 rates remained on the statute books, there would have been increased revenues due to improved administration. There is also the improvement in business conditions to be taken into account. Unquestionably there will be another drive for tax revision and economy in government expenditures.

It's the biggest issue of the moment next to an agricultural problem and President Coolidge will have something to say on both when he sends his message to congress and presents the budget for the next fiscal year.

2236.1 Miles in 48 Hours!

A Startling Nation-Wide Demonstration of Motor Car Stamina, Speed and Economy

Here is an amazing exhibition of motor car stamina, speed and economy—the most magnificent ever given the American public.

For 48 continuous hours, scores of Cleveland Sixes roared over the highways of America—

—participating simultaneously in a National Non-Stop Economy Run—

—demonstrating clearly and conclusively that the 1925 Cleveland Six is destined to go into history as one of the epoch making cars!

The winner went 2236.1 miles at an average speed of 46.5 m. p. h., averaging 28.3 miles to the gallon.

The eight leading entries covered an average of 2117.3 miles in 48 hours at an average speed of 44.1 m. p. h. and averaged 25.5 miles to the gallon.

And all 86 participating cars showed a grand average mileage of 1565 for the 48 hours; a grand average speed of 32.6 m. p. h. and a grand average economy of 21.4 miles per gallon.

There have been non-stop runs before—but never one like this. Never one so comprehensive in its scope—so free from any suspicion of "stunt" performance—so full of meaty facts.

All entries were standard 1925 Cleveland Sixes —exactly the car you see on the street.

Professional racing drivers were barred. Salesmen, executives, mechanics, accountants, newspaper men and even stenographers handled the wheel in various parts of the country.

Every car carried at least one passenger. Every motor ran 48 hours without stopping. Every car was officially observed. Every result was sworn to.

The records were not made on banked and guarded speedways—but in every section of the country over every conceivable sort of road, under every conceivable driving condition.

Here the highways were concrete, level and dry. There the roads ran with rain and clinging mud clutched at the wheels.

Here the going was gravel, loose and treacherous. Here again it was some dusty trail that led uphill and down through six or seven states.

At times the roads were clear and speeds of 50-60-70 miles an hour could be maintained. At others, congested traffic called for sure, swift, certain brakes and a steering gear that responded with split-second speed.

The average man will rarely do two months driving in two days—will rarely want to travel some 2,000 miles at a speed of 46 miles an hour regardless of road or weather.

But the average man DOES want a car that can come through such a racking, gruelling grind with flying colors.

And the man who has a Cleveland Six knows that his car will do all that—and more!

He knows that the Mileage Motor gives him an undreamed-of combination of power, endurance, speed and flawless operation—

—that he can safely expect 20 miles to the gallon in normal driving—

—that he can count on long life and inexpensive maintenance—

—and that, no matter what model he chooses, it will have the same fine materials, the same inspired engineering, and the same scrupulous workmanship that made these brilliant results an actuality!

"ONE-SHOT" Lubrication System

The amazing feats here recorded were to a large extent made possible by the "One-Shot" Lubrication System.

This exclusive patented feature enabled all drivers to keep all chassis parts perfectly lubricated at all times.

Whether going 60 miles an hour or taking on gasoline, they simply stepped on the plunger—and oiled all 23 chassis parts. No squeaks. No punished bearings.

Inauguration Service Cause for Discussion

ter was taken up, but no concessions appeared to be in sight. Mr. Harding sent for the chairman of the inaugural committee, his friend, Edward B. McLean, and, after a conference with him, the whole inauguration scheme was called off. The ceremonies were left entirely in the hands of the joint committees of Congress and were confined to the specified formula at the capitol.

There was no inaugural ball. The McLeans gave one instead, and it was at that ball that Calvin and Mrs. Coolidge were officially introduced to Washington society. A little more than two years later the former was president of the United States and the latter was the first lady of the land.

Up to the beginning of the Harding regime the inaugural parade and the inaugural ball had been considered a fixed quadrennial event in Washington's official and social life. Even where presidents were inaugurated for a second term, the parades and the balls and the fireworks were made just as much a part of the day and night as if an entirely new president was being inducted into office.

McKinley's Inaugural

The McKinley second inaugural was an especially splendid affair. When Theodore Roosevelt was inaugurated for his second term he had a "bully" time, and the parade included virtually all of the survivors of his old Rough Riders and many of his "buddies" from the West—companions of wild animal hunts and other strenuous excursions. Even Woodrow Wilson at his second inaugural, in 1917, just a month before the United States entered the war, did not discourage the usual pomp and military ceremony. March 4 that year happened to fall on Sunday. Mr. Wilson took the formal oath of office that day, but the public ceremonies, parades, etc., were held on Monday, March 5.

Washington Anxious

Washington residents, merchants and hotel men are extremely anxious that there shall be a return to the old time inaugurations next March, with all the fuss and feathers of the pre-Harding period. Much pressure will be brought upon President Coolidge to fall in with their plans. They are aware of Mr. Coolidge's dislike for display and of the fact that the White House mourning will be but barely ended by March 4, but they are hopeful that the president's reverence for custom and tradition may bring him to consent to at least a partial return to the pageantry of the past.

At other inaugurations there aways was a quarrel as to the use of the Pension building for an inaugural ball. It upset the government business. Now, however, Washington has a civic auditorium that can be made ready for the ball, and all thought of government expense or inconvenience is past.

The hope of Washington is that Mr. Coolidge may consent to a military escort from the White House to the capitol and a ball tendered wholly by the citizens of the capitol an dthe country. For the moment, however, the president is non-committal.

Joint Meeting Called For Chest Workers

The meeting will be in the nature of an instruction meeting and final rally, before the teams go out at 9 o'clock on Monday morning.

Christian Circle Club Meeting Place Changed

CHAPTER XVII

"Oh, bother the springs of your Rolls-Royce," she interrupted. "I'm coming with you because I want to get to the club quickly and because I like your car."

"The worst of being a millionaire!" Grant complained gloomily, as he took his place at the wheel. "One is tolerated only for one's possessions."

"They're generally the best thing about a millionaire," Susan declared. "All the same, if there were an unattached English one in the market, I think that I should like to marry him."

"What's the matter with a perfectly good American one?" he suggested.

"Entrancing idea, but illusionary," she rejoined drily. "I hate syndicates, or rechauffes. I'm going in to tidy up, Grant. Try and get the round table in the corner."

She jumped out and ran lightly up the steps. Grant backed his car to the pavement and was in the act of following her when the blue-livered commissionaire, hat in hand, accosted him mysteriously.

"A young lady asked me to give you this as soon as you arrived, sir," he announced, presenting a twisted-up half sheet of paper.

"Sure it's for me?" Grant asked a little doubtfully.

"Mr. Grant Slattery," the man declared. "The young person knew your name, sir."

Grant thrust the note into his waistcoat pocket. He felt a curious conviction as to its source. To add a touch of coincidence to the affair, on the opposite side of the way, Itash was leaning over the wall, apparently watching the shipping in the harbor.

As a yachtsman Mr. Cornelius Blunn did not shine sartorially. As a guest and conversationalist at Grant's improvised cruise on the following day he was easily the most popular man on board. Susan, who had been his neighbor at lunch, watched him pacing the deck, with a look almost of affection in her face.

"Princess," she confided to Gertrude, "I think your friend, Mr. Blunn, is the most amusing man I've ever met."

Gertrude smiled.

"He is one of those impossible persons who never grow up," she declared. "A picnic like this is the joy of his life. He was simply delighted when I gave him Mr. Slattery's message. The strange part of it is that he can scarcely cross the gangway of a steamer without being violently ill. Yet a cruise like this he simply revels in."

"Make his fortune as a raconteur on the music-hall stage," Bobby Lancaster chuckled. "Some of the stories he told after you girls had come up on deck!—there was one about a little Dutch girl. I really must—"

"Bobby," Susan interrupted severely, "I am ashamed of you. The story will reach us all in due course, through the proper channels. You will tell your sister, of course. She will tell me. And so on."

"Then there was another about an Italian maid."

His sister rose to her feet and thrust her arm through his.

"Bobby," she said, "you and I will take a little walk. You have brought this upon yourself. I can't see you chuckling there and leaving me to wonder what it's all about all the time. We'll stroll down to the bows."

"This roundabout business is trying but decent," Susan observed. "I suppose I shall have to wait at least another quarter of an hour. In the meantime, Mr. Slattery, I adore your yacht."

"She really is wonderful, Grant," Gertrude intervened. "You hadn't anything like this in the old days, had you?"

"Perhaps it was as well," Susan murmured, with a rare impulse of ill humor.

Gertrude smiled across at her rival. Grant had scarcely left her side all day and she was beginning to feel a little sorry for this very charming young English girl to whom her coming was likely to prove so disastrous. Even the picnic had been arranged at her suggestion.

"Well, the yacht has arrived, and other things," she remarked. "It is never too late in this world, so long as one has the will. Grant, I want you to go to the Dutch East Indies."

"I'd better tell him to put in at Naples and coal, then," he suggested.

"You will kindly remember," Susan observed, "that you have the Prime Minister of the greatest empire in the world on board, who will be required at Nice at a quarter to eleven tomorrow morning to preside over the little tea party there."

"That is unfortunate," Gertrude sighed. "Such a quarrelsome little tea party, too, isn't it?"

Lymane, who was seated in the little circle, moved in his chair uneasily. Grant turned slightly towards her.

MURPHY COMEDIANS

"The Power of Wealth" is making many new friends for Murphy Comedians No. 2, at their big, comfortably heated tent theatre on San Fernando boulevard at Cedar street, Burbank. It is a four-act political drama of the present. John Hughes has the leading role, supported by Barbara Gurney. The curtain rises 8:15 o'clock, though the tent is open from 7:15 o'clock on.

Mr. Hughes has the role of a young district attorney, surrounded by "rotten" politics and in love with the daughter of the corrupt political boss. This affords him an excellent opportunity to further demonstrate the ability revealed last week in "Peg o' My Heart."

John Hughes is well known on the Pacific coast, having played all the large cities from Seattle to San Diego, opposite Ruth Long, in "The Misleading Lady." Barbara Curney is a David Belasco discovery.

DOBINSON PLAYERS

The Dobinson Players opened at the Tuesday Afternoon club theatre this afternoon with "Adam and Eva," a daringly clever comedy that vastly amused the audience. The play will be given again tonight and every night for the balance of the week, with a 2:30 o'clock Saturday matinee. Mrs. Florence Dobinson is to be congratulated on this sparkling comedy, which is exceptionally well cast throughout and is bound to please Glendale theatre-goers.

In the time the Dobinson Players have been in Glendale, they have put on a series of consistently good plays, each one better than the last. In "Adam and Eva" they have excelled themselves. Here is a play that, popular in New York, lends itself particularly well to stock. No one who really enjoys a sophisticated but clean and wholesome play should miss this offering. The curtain rises at 8:15 o'clock

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S GRAPE JUICE

Do you know where any wild grapes grow, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy of the rabbit gentleman one morning.

"Of course I know!" laughed Mr. Longears, giving his pink nose an extra twinkle to make it shine like a new tin dishpan from the five and ten cent store. "There are wild grapes in the woods where I go each day for adventures."

"Then please bring me some wild grapes," begged Nurse Jane. "I am going to have a little party for some of the animal ladies, and I need wild grapes."

"Are you and your lady friends going to throw wild grapes at one another?" asked the bunny.

"No, indeed," replied Nurse Jane. "But I want to squeeze the wild grapes in my lemon squasher and make grape juice for the ladies to drink at the party."

"I'll get some for you," kindly offered Uncle Wiggily, and away he hopped, over the fields and through the woods, carrying with him a basket in which to pick the wild grapes he would gnaw from the vines in the forest.

"Grape juice is very good to drink," said Uncle Wiggily to himself, as he reached the place where the purple clusters dangled on the vines. "I wonder if I couldn't squeeze out some grape juice for myself, since there may be none left after Nurse Jane's party. I'd like a drink of grape juice myself."

There were many wild grapes growing on the vines, enough to fill Nurse Jane's basket, and many more.

"But I haven't any lemon squasher here, so how can I press out the grape juice?" said the bunny to himself. Then he saw two flat stones lying beside the woodland path.

"Ha!" Those stones will make something like a lemon squasher to squeeze out the grape juice," said Uncle Wiggily. "And I can make me a little cup of birch bark to hold the juice. I'll do it!"

No sooner said than done. Picking a bunch of grapes, the rabbit placed them between the two flat stones. At the lower end of the stones he put a cup he made from some birch bark which he gnawed off a tree.

"Now I will dance a jig on this top stone and my weight will squeeze the grapes and press out the juice so I may drink it," said Mr. Longears. "I'll have a little party all by myself before I take Nurse Jane's grapes home to her."

So he danced on the top stone and out between the rocks ran the purple grape juice into the bark cup.

"Tra-la-la! Tra-la-la"! sang Uncle Wiggily as he danced.

"Ho! Ho! why are you so jolly? growled a voice, and out of the bushes stalked a Big Black Bushy Bear. "Why are you dancing and singing, Uncle Wiggily?"

"Because I am having a grape juice party!" laughed the rabbit.

"Ho! Ho!" growled the Bear. "Then I think I shall have an ear party! I'm coming to nibble you!"

"Oh, no, you aren't!" cried the bunny. With that he stopped dancing and threw a lot of grapes in the face of the Bear. The grapes pelted the Bear on his nose and made him blink his eyes. And when he opened his mouth to growl Uncle Wiggily threw a bunch of grapes in the Bear's jaws.

"Oh, gurra! Gurra! Gurra! Gup! choked the Bear, and he was so frightened that he ran away and did'nt bite the bunny after all. Then Mr. Longears drank his grape juice and hurried home with the grapes. Nurse Jane gave a very fine party for the animal ladies.

And if the snow shovel doesn't catch cold when it crawls under the stove to play tag with the pussy cat, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's bonfire.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

WARTS

I recently wrote on warts. However, in this morning's mail there are so many requests for information on the subject that it looks as though we must have a lot of new bewarted readers. So I'll repeat the article:

Warts seem to be of a slightly infectious nature. We know that they will spread from one part of the hands to other parts. They are quite common in childhood. There are many things that will remove them. You might try some of the following home remedies: After thoroughly scrubbing the hands, two or three times a day, rub baking soda on them; or try this, it will remove them in some cases: Take a large sized potato and cut off a fresh slice each day and rub it on the warts. It is the potassium salt of the potato that does the work.) Sometimes painting once a day with iodin is effective. If home remedies do not rout them, you should go to a skin specialist. After adult age is reached warts in a position on the body to be irritated should be removed for they are possible sources of cancer.

INCREASES SELF-RESPECT

"Dear Doctor Peters: I just wanted to let you know about my girl chum and me. Each of us weighed 170 and we have reduced to 130 by following your instructions. We lost about 20 pounds and then rested a while to let our flesh become solid again before we lost the other 20. Never again will we look as though we belonged in a Turkish harem! Every one loves us more and we love ourselves, heaps and heaps more than we did.

"I put my mother, who is 50, on your diet. She said it couldn't be done. I just received a letter from her, telling me she has gone from 155 to 125 pounds. She is only four feet, 11 inches tall, so you see she is still about 25 pounds too fat. I feel rather proud of the results and you should be very proud of all three of us.—I. R."

Undoubtedly you and your chum's reducing together made your course more interesting because you helped each other. I am glad you followed directions about resting a while after a loss of from 20 to 30 pounds. We believe that that is the better plan, although I have had many letters from our followers who have lost as high as from 60 to 70 pounds without resting at intervals, and apparently they have not been harmed. It is best to be on the safe side, however, and after a reduction of from 20 to 30 pounds, eat enough to maintain the weight you have reached (you need not gain) for about two weeks. That allows you to have a more liberal and a more varied diet, and in case you have been missing some of the elements your system needs when on a more restricted diet, you can get caught up. Of course every one loves you more. You have proved that you have strength of character enough to control your appetite. That's some strength. I am happy when I think of the numerous disorders which may come in the wake of overweight, which you are going to escape. Yes, I'll say I'm proud of all of you.

GOITRES

L. wants to know if goitres can be caused by a sharp or dull object being pushed into the neck, or by being choked by someone.

Simple goitre—that is, a goitre which is not accompanied by any symptoms—has been proven to be due to a deficiency of iodin in the system, either through lack of iodin in foods or water, or through some cause that prevents the proper iodin absorption. The cause of exophthalmic goitre—one usually accompanied by bulging of the eyes, rapid pulse, many nervous symptoms and underweight—is not so definitely known. Some of the theories are: poisoning absorbed from some focus of infection in the body, diseased tonsils, teeth, intestinal putrefaction, and so forth, or from disturbances of the other internal secretory glands. There is also the possibility of a lack of iodin in the system, as in the case of simple goitre. There are other goitres caused by different types of tumors of the thyroid gland.

If the choking or injury were great enough to cause an inflammation of the gland, it is possible for it to be a starting point for upsetting the function. In this way, it might be probable that a permanent swelling or goitre would develop.

We have an article which tells you more about this subject. You may have it by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request.

Brookhart Is Gradually Losing Senatorial Lead

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 12.—With the official count in from seventy-five of Iowa's ninety-nine counties, Senator Smith W. Brookhart's lead over his Democratic opponent, in the senatorial race, Dan F. Steck, was steadily dwindling and this morning stood at 606. This was a gain of more than 100 votes for Steck since yesterday morning and a gain of over 400 since the starting of the official canvass. It has been estimated that 60,000 Iowa voters refrained from making any choice for senator, figuring that there was no Republican candidate, due to Brookhart's disagreement with the party leaders before election.

WE

want you to take a trip with us through a new home, Kenneth road district. We consider this home to be just a little bit better built, more tastefully decorated and practically designed than any other similarly priced home in or around Glendale. Here is a feeble attempt at an adequate description of this most desirable offer:

The sprinkler system, for the lawns, is entirely controlled from the front porch—a great convenience. The cement retaining walls, driveways, etc., are A-1.

Under the stucco is diagonal sheething of 1x4 boards, then heavy paper, hog wire and FIVE coats of stucco.

Inside—you enter through a massive Southern gum door, a large living room, papered with heavily embossed paper ($4 per roll). Southern gum finish to the woodwork, Batchelder tile fireplace, and just the right kind and design of electrical fixtures are the decorations here. The hardware throughout the home is solid brass with dull finish.

Dining room is bright and cheery with decorations exactly the same as living room. Off the living room is a room with same finish, planned either for bedroom, or library. Two other bedrooms, tile bath with grade A plumbing, good sized kitchen, with tile sink and fine cupboard arrangement, a furnished breakfast room, rear porch, good basement with laundry, and automatic heater complete the home proper.

Large double garage, with the best of folding rooms (which a child could handle), good shrubbery, east front, lot 50x150—are also factors in making this Hayselden, secretary of the commission; Peter L. Ferry, Arthur Campbell, Dr. T. C. Young, W. J. Curren and J. C. Sherer, all members of the flood control committee.

Substitute Plan

As a substitute for the rip-rap plan of Mr. Reagan, a plan for an open cement channel-roadway twenty feet on either side of the canyon, with a cement ravine between, has been worked out by Mr. Ferry and will be taken up tomorrow. It is believed that such a channel would care for all the flood waters from these canyons, under normal conditions.

The arguments against the proposed rip-rap center aroused a doubt whether such a channel would care for all the flood waters thrown down from the hills. It is believed that the tunnel plan is not practical under the circumstances and Mr. Reagan will be asked to divert the available county funds to construct some sort of flood control channel that will meet with the approval of the majority of residents and taxpayers involved. Temporary relief for the present season also will be taken up with Mr. Reagan at tomorrow's meeting, it was decided.

Coolidge Proposes to Call World Conference

Washington conference Great Britain and the United States have been in accord that the time was ripe for a new conference, but on each occasion French objections have frustrated it.

Whether, with the Dawes plan now in operation, the French finances somewhat more stabilized by the new Morgan loan, the French will meet the English-speaking nations half way, remains to be seen.

It was the French attitude at the Washington conference that necessitated a second conference. France refused to consider limitation of land armaments, submarines or aircraft and threatened to bolt the conference if these subpects were taken up. Under the circumstances there was nothing left to do but to postpone their consideration.

There are two important questions to be settled, however, in the summoning of another conference. There is reason to believe that both are now being discussed in the capitals of the nations concerned. One is the attitude to be taken toward Russia, the other is whether the conference should be held in America or in Europe.

Any consideration of land armaments would have to take Russia into account, for Russia now has the largest standing army in Europe.

Every first class government in the world has now recognized Russia save the United States. That presents complications which officials here were unwilling to discuss today.

Discuss Meeting Place

Britain proposes the second conference be held abroad. The American government does not look with much favor on this proposal, believing that old world jealousies and rivalries would be much more apt to intrude and mar the work of the conference than if it were held in the tranquil atmosphere of Washington.

Another barrier that stood in the way of the conference has been French insistence that the subject of war debts be considered concurrently with any talk of arms limitation. The American government has always opposed this and will continue to oppose it.

With the reparations problem on the way to settlement now, there is reason to believe that the French government will not be so insistent upon debt discussion in conjunction with a new arms conference.

oil shares into a moderate rally in the fourth hour; the stock sold at 40 for the first time since the heavy decline in oil stocks in May, when it sold as low as 29. Pure Oil made a new high at 27⅝. Pan-American was strong. General Petroleum moved against the market and lost 2 points at 42⅝.

Profit-taking was no handicap to the copper stocks, which sold at or near the high of the movement. Equipments were steady, motors firm with Mack Truck up 1½. Shipping stocks active and strong with Marine preferred up 1¼ at 40 and American International up one at 31⅛.

The bears hammered the weak spots and succeeded in forcing Davison Chemical down 6 points to 38½. Willys-Overland preferred down nearly 3 points to 61¾. Colorado Fuel and Vanadium were irregular and Continental Can broke 3 points from the high of the day on announcement that the company would issue new stock at 54.

Oil and specialty stocks carried forward the rally in prices in the last hour. Oil stocks moved upward on reports that the Standard Oil company of Louisiana in the south and independent buyers of oil in the west had advanced crude oil prices 40c a barrel, making current prices $1.65 a barrel. Cosden, Marland and Sinclair oil sold at the best prices for the current movement.

Stock sales today, 2,320,000 shares; bonds, $22,894,000.
